ARHX300 The Art of Florence: Exploring Visual Culture (3 Credits)

During the Renaissance, the city of Florence was the site of some of the most remarkable artistic experiences in European history. Why, though, should one city have contributed so much to the course of the arts? Why should so many of the city's works of art, monuments, and buildings have played a major role in the development of the visual arts? What set of circumstances and conditions made this possible? This course is designed to explore these questions through an examination of historical factors that made Florence the birthplace and point of reference for what we now call "Renaissance art."
