

CPSN - COLLEGE PARK SCHOLARS-INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

CPSN100 College Park Scholars: International Studies First-Year Colloquium I (1 Credit)

Introductory colloquium: Examination of issues related to international studies.

Restriction: Students must be enrolled in the College Park Scholars International Studies (CPSN) program.

CPSN101 College Park Scholars: International Studies First-Year Colloquium II (1 Credit)

Introductory colloquium II: Continued examination of issues related to international studies.

Prerequisite: CPSN100.

Restriction: Students must be enrolled in the College Park Scholars International Studies (CPSN) program.

Additional Information: When paired with the successful completion of CPSN 100, students will earn Diversity/Cultural Competence General Education credits.

CPSN200 College Park Scholars: International Studies Second-Year Colloquium I (1 Credit)

This sophomore colloquium aims to help prepare College Park Scholars International Studies students with practical, translatable knowledge and capabilities that are required to enter and contribute constructively to addressing pressing challenges as global citizens. Building on their previous two colloquia, students are (1) introduced to practical realities of developing projects, programs, and policies to address the world's grand challenges, including those associated with exposures to new settings, cultures, and issues; (2) trained in hard skills necessary to design, plan, implement, and evaluate projects and policies effectively and ethically; (3) instructed in practical, efficient research with applied relevance; and (4) exposed to strategies of entrepreneurship and innovation.

Prerequisite: CPSN101.

Restriction: Must be enrolled in the College Park Scholars International Studies (CPSN) program.

CPSN230 College Park Scholars: International Studies - Internship Practicum (1-3 Credits)

Supervised internship project in an area related to international studies.

Prerequisite: CPSN101.

Restriction: Students must be enrolled in the College Park Scholars International Studies (CPSN) program.

CPSN240 College Park Scholars: International Studies - Service-Learning Practicum (1-3 Credits)

Supervised Service-Learning project in an area related to international studies.

Prerequisite: CPSN101.

Restriction: Students must be enrolled in the College Park Scholars International Studies (CPSN) program.

CPSN250 College Park Scholars: International Studies - Research Practicum (1-3 Credits)

Supervised research in an area related to international studies.

Prerequisite: CPSN101.

Restriction: Students must be enrolled in the College Park Scholars International Studies (CPSN) program.